

Name: Chris Disspain

Biography: Chris, was for 14 years a corporate lawyer in the U.K. and Australia.

For over ten years he has held executive management positions and directorships in private and public companies in the U.K. and Australia.

He was appointed CEO of auDA in October 2000. auDA is the self regulatory body governing the .au domain name space and managing the domain name system in Australia.

He is the Chair of the Country Code Name Supporting Organisation, a body that represents the interests of and sets global policy and best practice for country code top level domains within ICANN. He is also a Director of the Asia Pacific Top Level Domain organisation which represents country codes in the Asia Pacific region.

Web Sites: auDA www.auda.org.au
ICANN www.icann.org
ccNSO www.ccnso.org
apTLD www.apTLD.org