

Prof. Faryel MOURIA-BEJI

(Member IEEE, AAI, ISOC and INNS)

- Ph. D. Computer science major Artificial Intelligence (A.I);
- M.S. Computer science major A.I. (D.E.A);
- Engineer in Computer science;
- President and CEO of the Tunisian Internet Agency (Ministry of communication technologies and Transport) (a government owned company in charge of the ccTLD (.tn));
- Director of Tunisia NIC;
- Professor-Researcher, ENSI-University of Tunis;
- Chair, Middle East African & Emerging Nations IPV6 Task Force (MEA & EN IPV6 TF);
- Chair, IPV6 Forum Tunisia;
- Chair, Tunisian IPV6 Task Force;
- AINC chair;
- Head of the Artificial Intelligence Laboratory (LIA);
- 77 publications in the field of Internet and Artificial Intelligence ;
- Several Presentation on Internet in international meetings;
- Visitor Professor to many universities in USA, CANADA and Europe;
- Participated and chaired sessions in several International events and conferences;
- Coordinator of a number of International projects (CMCU, European, AUPELF, World Bank ...);
- Member of various national and international organisations;

Previously :

- Researcher in RFIA research group at INRIA, France;
- Research Engineer at CNRS, France;
- Teaching assistant at University of Nancy I and FSE, France;
- Visiting researcher to STL, Santa Barbara, USA;
- Visiting researcher to the Brussels University, Belgium;
- Visiting researcher to the power plant of Cadarache (CEA), France;
- Teaching assistant at IUT of the University of Nancy II, France;
- Visiting researcher to the University of Toronto, CANADA;
- Visiting researcher to the California University;
- Visiting researcher to ESCA, Berlin, Germany;
- Director in charge of Internet at ATCE;
- Responsible in charge of Internet at the cabinet of the secretary of state for computer science; Consultant at IRSIT institute.