

Ayesha Hassan, Senior Policy Manager for E-Business, IT and Telecoms, ICC International Secretariat, Paris

Ayesha Hassan manages the ICC's policy work on E-Business, IT and Telecoms. Ms. Hassan is an experienced lawyer, and has a background in dispute resolution, international policy, and ecommerce issues. Ms. Hassan is former head of online dispute resolution services at SquareTrade. She obtained her undergraduate degree from the University of Chicago, law degree from the University of San Diego, and a masters in international policy studies from Stanford University.